Millbury Residents Picket as Lewcott Officials Meet with Kollios

MILLBURY. An angry but orderly group of Millbury residents picketed across the street from the Millbury office of Representative Paul Kollios (D-Millbury) on April 3, as representatives of Lewcott Corporation met inside with Kollios to discuss the company's announcement that they would be closing their Worcester facility and moving some of their processes to Millbury.

Picketers, some holding signs calling for Lewcott to "Get out of Town", were encouraged by a steady staccato of horns beeping in response to other signs reading, "Honk if you want Lewcott out of town".

Two of the picketers were Carol and Paul Anderson of Providence Road whose home is located less than a half mile from Lewcott. Mrs. Anderson stated that she cannot open her windows because of the odors. Her husband, voicing health concerns added, "When my son, on a nice clear day comes in the house and complains of a sore throat, there's something wrong." The Andersons both stated that they want to see the company out of Millbury.

For Connie Cammusso, of South Main Street, the odor problems go back many years. "The odors have been here for more years than I can remember," she stated. "Ever since they (Lewcott) opened up there, we've had this smell, and we never knew that there was anything that could be done about it. Now that there is, I hope that the proper officials will take it into consideration and help us out." With the warm weather approaching, Mrs. Cammusso expressed concern that a repeat of the odor problem of past summers would force her to curtail all outdoor activities. "We can't sit out; we can't work in the garden; we've had to give up everything," she said.

Another picketer, Sharon Kirkpatrick of Leslie Lane, also complained of the odors. In addition, she spoke of health problems in her neighborhood which she feels are directly related to emissions from the Lewcott area. "We've had a lot of health problems in the Leslie Lane and Woodland Street areas. We've had 12 cancer cases and now there are two more." Mrs. Kirkpatrick added that the health problems appear to affect those homeowners who have lived in the area quite a few years.

While the picketers protested outside, Representative Kollios listened to Lewcott Vice President, Jack Burgoyne, and Treasurer Ronald Eldridge, explain that they have approximately 5-8 shift operations in Worcester that they would like to transfer to Millbury.

Kollios reported that the only space requirements would be for "roughly 10% more gallonage of flammable liquids than they now have down there." Kollios stated

Sutton Hosts Elder Advocate Workshop

Representatives of the Sutton Council on Aging attended a workshop presented by the Massachusetts Elder Advocate Program on Thursday, April 2. The Sutton Town Hall was the host site for the Workshop which welcomed elder affairs activists from many central Massachusetts towns. The Elder Advocate Program was described as "elders helping elders."

In graduation ceremonies held at the close of the Workshop, Massachusetts Secretary of Elder Affairs, Richard H. Rowland, praised the attendees noting, "I salute you for the care and concern that you all bring. You come with a point of view; you represent the elderly generation; and you are insistent that you be dealt with as an equal partner in the legislative process."

SUTTON FINANCE COMMITTEE TO HOLD PUBLIC HEARING ON BUDGET

By Karen Potter

All Sutton Selectmen were in attendance at their March 31st Workshop session.

Invited by chairman John Reed, Bob Chase and Bob Judson of the Wilkinsonville Water District presented a proposal for construction of an office/storage building. Unofficial plans illustrated a 576 square foot building which would be constructed on a slab and be adjacent to the Wilkinsonville Fire Station. Judson and Chase described the intended use of the building as being an office for the Treasurer, a meeting room, and storage space for records.

Since its inception in 1967, the Commission has held its meetings in member's homes. Citing the need for meeting space as critical, Judson said, "We're starting to meet with engineers and developers. It's just not very professional anymore to meet in somebody's cellar or kitchen."

The Selectmen agreed that they will favor an Article for the Special Town meeting Warrant which will propose a 99 year lease of the parcel of property in question, for this stated purpose. In exchange for a $1.00 per year lease fee, the Water District will agree to allow their facility to be used as a polling place for elections.

Chase and Judson said they will now proceed to hire an architect to render complete drawings and to price the construction of the building; these drawings will be needed for the building and variance permit process.

Funding for this project will come entirely from the water district budget. It is expected that the monies can be raised from water taxes and from the per-residence hook-up fee of $1,000 recently enacted by the Commission.

David Streiby, Finance Committee Chairman, updated the selectmen on the progress in finalizing the town's budget. In addition to presenting bottom line figures, he sought input from the Selectmen on the question of whether the board wants the Finance Committee to attempt to balance the budget. Chairman John Reed replied, "I think we're all in favor of that." Wally Johnson added, "It's the proper thing to do. It's our duty, isn't it?" Streiby agreed to come back to a future workshop session with firm budget proposals. As it stands now, there are few changes in budgets submitted by the various departments.

There are two unknown factors in the budget setting process this year: the Revenue Sharing Reimbursement which could maximize at $114,000, and negotiated salary increases under the new teacher's contract. Other than these two factors, the current figure for the total budget stands at approximately $5,239,000. Within what he termed "striking distance" ($160,000) of balancing the budget, Streiby attributed the town's favorable position to receipts, growth, free cash, and increased state aid. The Finance Committee will hold it's public hearing on Monday evening, April 13th. John Reed urges all voters to attend this hearing which will explain much of the line item budget setting that voters will face at the Annual Town Meeting.

Administrative Assistant Robert Reed gave the Selectmen an update on the implementation of recommendations made by the Massachusetts Municipal Association. The Building Permit Review process has been improved by changing the physical layout of the Building Inspector's department, by changing the forms used, and by changing the delivery of services performed by the Building Inspector. Reed said that Sutton has received many compliments from other communities who found the improvement both "innovative and inspirational."

In keeping with the informal style of the workshop meeting, John Reed opened a discussion by proposing a suggestion to change the way public hearings (particularly for proposed building sites) are currently conducted. He suggested that it might be possible to hold joint public hearings and joint site reviews which would involve all the interested boards (e.g. Planning, ZBA, Conservation, ERB). All the boards would hold one joint hearing, thereby speeding up the permit process. In addition, the petitioner, the abutters, and interested citizens could meet for discussion and comments more easily. In this way, boards would be able to hear information on all aspects of a permit application instead of only what is presented for deliberation within their individual scope of responsibility.

Although the plan will need more "detail" work, the Selectmen felt that the idea has merit.

In a previous Selectmen's meeting held on March 16th, it was announced that the Annual Town Meeting would convene on April 18th to consider the 40 Article Warrant which was posted on March 23, 1987. Selectmen plan to seek an immediate postponement of the proceeding. It is expected that the Moderator will entertain a motion for adjournment which will suggest reconvening Town Meeting on Wednesday night, May 13, and, if necessary, continue it on Thursday night, May 14.

It is hoped that the figures of Revenue Sharing Reimbursement from the state will have been approved by that later date. In addition, the Selectmen feel that the level of participation in the town meeting process will be greater on successive week nights than it has been on the all day Saturday schedule.

SUTTON TO UPDATE REVALUATION

SUTTON. The Sutton Board of Assessors has contracted with M.M.C. Inc. of Chelmsford to conduct the state mandated Fiscal 1988 update of values of both real and personal property.

In contrast to the complete measure and list of property throughout the whole community conducted for the Fiscal 1985 revaluation, this update will consist of measuring and listing property on which a building permit was obtained during calendar year 1986. All qualified sales of property throughout calendar year 1986 will be used to determine new values on the various categories of land and developed property. New street factors will be determined by the sales along each street and the condition of each area.

The Town of Sutton has seen a marked increase in sales prices of land and developed property within the last two years. Vacant houselots are commonly sold for $45,000, with ranges up to and including $70,000 for a single houselot. Sale prices are not determined by the Board of Assessors, the Department of Revenue, or a revaluation firm hired by the town. These prices are set solely by people buying and selling property and are reflective of the market statewide. Sutton is a community whose proximity to Worcester and Boston makes it a desirable area to people who no longer can afford the higher prices of the Westboro or Route 495 area, and wish to settle in a rural area.

Progress reports on the Fiscal 1988 update will be issued periodically in order to keep residents up to date on developments.

COUNTRY SQUARES DANCE

SUTTON. The Sutton Country Squares will hold their 23rd anniversary dance on Saturday April 11th at the Allen Homestead, 385 South Street, Shrewsbury. This is a club level, mainstream, plus square and round dance.

The caller will be Mike Hjort and Dot Poulin will be cuer. Special refreshments and door prizes will be available.

BLOOD PRESSURE CLINIC

MILLBURY. Three Blood Pressure Clinics will be held next week, sponsored free for the public by the District Nursing Society, serving residents of Millbury, Sutton, and neighboring communities. The first will be Tuesday, April 14, at the Asa Waters Mansion, 123 Elm Street, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. The next will be Wednesday, April 15, at Linden Apartments, Pearl Street, from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. The third is Thursday, April 16, for residents of Centerview Apartments only, from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m.

These clinics are among the many and varied services offered by the District Nursing Society to help people stay well and to prevent potential problems from arising. The Society is 76 years old and proud of its heritage and place in today's health care.

Teacher Appointments and Tenure Focus of School Committee Meeting

By Edward J. Cooney

- Chairman Hanratty opened the meeting at 7:30 p.m. by reading a statement written by him pertaining to the State Ethics Committee's guidelines which require a public disclosure of any relationship of an office holder or public official to an employee who is a relative coming under their supervision or authority. Hanratty explained that he has a brother employed as a fully qualified teacher in the Millbury School system and that he, as a School Committee member, would refrain from any vote pertaining to his brother.

Hanratty also read a letter from the Millbury Board of Selectmen stating that they, as a Board, counseled against the School Committee's request for use of Town Counsel for an interpretation of the nepotism advisory as it pertains to Hanratty and Bruce Pease, both of whom have family members employed by the School Department.

The Selectmen expressed concern for the monies remaining in the Town Counsel Budget and stated that they wished to maintain the Budget at a level for future contingencies. The Board suggested that the School Committee seek an opinion and interpretation from the State Ethics Commission.

- The Minutes of March 18th were then reviewed, corrected, and accepted on a 5-0 vote with the following additions:

1. Wilczynski asked that it be made clear that the School Committee was only providing the Center School for use as a Youth Center and that the Selectmen were in complete charge of the project.

2. Pease asked that it be noted that the position of Curriculum Director was discussed at length and that Dr. Sylvia requested that it not be filled but that he be allowed to assume the duties.

3. Mrs. Cooney requested that the minutes show a Committee vote (5-0) to delete one High School teaching position, and to add a part time maintenance position, as opposed to a full time, in the 87-88 school budget.

- The first item on the Agenda was a brief presentation by Principal Kelton Johnson who explained the requests submitted by the Elmwood School Improvement Council.

The Committee approved the Council's request for expending $1,008 for the purchase of V.H.S. materials to be used by both parents and teachers for workshops, a Science V.H.S., a booklet "Your Child Entering School" for children entering kindergarten, a complete awareness program for Grades K-3 on feelings, drugs, smoking and safety, and awards and ribbons for Track and Field Day.

- Principal Daniel Carmody was present to report on the retesting of grade 11 students in the statewide Assessment Program. The request had come from the Task Force Committee, based on Shrewsbury High School's similar request.

Carmody informed the Committee that the Grade 11 students were retested this week in Reading, Math and Science. He noted that some of the questions on the Math and Science test were difficult for the non-college students because they did not have a second year of Math or third year of Science. Carmody stated that, with the third year of math and science requirement, the next test, to be given to grade 12, should make students better prepared.

that the company presently stores between 25 and 30,000 gallons. He further explained, "I was concerned about how much of an expansion would be down here. They're adding only about a 10% increase on the Worcester operation. They would have to somehow get between 5 and 8, 8-hour shifts of work down here if they hope to be able to expand. And they need to provide some space, perhaps even in another building, for additional administrative and sales forces."

Kollios then mentioned that the company is also considering implementing a die cutting process which he described as a mechanical procedure. He stated that none of the alterations mentioned would require any additional space or physical expansion or renovation.

Kollios then noted that company officials admit to odor problems reported by residents. Referring to pollution controls that the DEQE has required Lewcott to install by the Fall of 1987, Kollios stated, "They hope that (the fume incinerator) will contain the odor as much as possible."

When asked if company officials were considering reducing their production schedule to lower the odors during the summer months, Kollios reported, "They've had meetings with their own management on just how to do that. They have no specifics yet."

Kollios also stated that the company is looking into the possibility that a solvent reclamation process that they no longer use could have caused some ground surface contamination.

In addition, Kollios reported that the company is interested in investigating the allegations of contaminates in the ground water. He stated that Lewcott has hired O.H. Materials of Hopkinton to investigate the ground water problem. Kollios added that this company is recognized in the industry and by the DEQE as well.

Kollios then related that he and company officials discussed a proposal, still in the initial stages, which may be brought up at the next Lewcott/Polyclad Task Force meeting. The proposal would call for a joint re-investigation of all those areas (air, ground, water), that have already been tested. "We would like to do it in concert with the DEQE, with the citizens, and have some new results of what contamination, if any, might exist."

While the picketers protesting outside were calling for Lewcott to leave Millbury, Kollios acknowledged that the question of relocating the Millbury facility was never discussed during the meeting.

GOLDEN AGERS UPDATE

By Lillian C. Sheehan

MILLBURY GOLDEN AGE CLUB

o President Fred Bazin reminds the members of the Millbury Golden Age Club that dues are now payable. You have the months of April and May to pay your dues of $3.00, since dues are payable before the close of the Club year in June.

o NOTE: Those going to the Dinner Theater - the bus will leave St. Brigid's parking lot at 10:00 a.m. SHARP! (April 22nd)

o Olive Ellstrom is now in a nursing home in Webster; Doris Paquette has returned home; and Larry Stockwell is in St. Vincent's Hospital - Best wishes to all of them.

o Happy Birthday to Marie D'Auteuil on April 13th; Gerald Army on the 24th; and Helme Salois on April 29th - all tenants of Centerview Apartments. Many Happy Returns!

o They say "If you don't like the weather in New England, wait a minute", and sometimes that rings true. These past few days we would have had quite a wait for the rain to change. However, we are more fortunate than those poor people who are being flooded.

VOLUNTEERS SOUGHT

Concerned about the environment? Like working with people? Enjoy the outdoors? Have time and willingness to learn skills? Then consider volunteering some of your spare time assisting the U.S.D.A. Soil Conservation Service with its mission of soil and water conservation work.

Work is available in the following areas: Journalism, photography, field survey, map preparation, design work, and construction inspection.

Recent government cutbacks in personnel mean some important jobs will not be done without some type of assistance. This is where volunteers can help. If you are at least 16 years old you can apply. Although you will not be paid for your services, you will get personal satisfaction and a growing knowledge from your efforts. You can work part of full time and scheduling will be done according to the seasonal field survey needs.

If interested, call the USDA Soil Conservation Service office at 829-6628. The office is located at 672-B Main Street, Room 10, in Holden.

Chapter activities include scheduled campouts to various resort campgrounds within the New England region and may be attended by several hundred families seeking the fun, fellowship, and excitement of new places and faces.

Annual dues are $17.00 for the first year, $15.00 thereafter. If you would like further information about the group, or a membership application, write to Worcester Chapter, NAFCA, 50 Courtland Street, Worcester, MA 01602.

NAFCA and the Worcester Chapter are non-profit organizations.

DEADLINE FOR ALL SUBMISSIONS TO THE MILLBURY-SUTTON CHRONICLE IS 12:00 NOON ON SATURDAY OF THE WEEK PRIOR TO PUBLICATION.

- Mrs. Cooney then asked that Item #6 concerning recommendations for second, third and tenure appointments, be taken up before Item #4.

- The Committee concurred with the request and Dr. Sylvia made a recommendation that 11 teachers, as listed, not be rehired until after the May 12th Annual Town Meeting. Sylvia explained that if the Budget was cut it would be easier to determine which teachers might be let go.

Alan Tuttle noted, "We have to protect ourselves because we don't know the final school budget. The teachers have been notified and are aware of what is going on."

Mrs. Cooney stated that it was past practice for the Committee to vote on each recommendation individually and not as a group. She also noted that, according to state law, if teachers were not notified they would not be rehired by April 15th, they would automatically be appointed.

In response to Sylvia's recommendation, Mrs. Cooney stated that she was opposed to terminating the eleven non-tenured teachers. "It's not right to leave them in limbo until after the May 12th town meeting. Such action would cause more morale problems. If taken as a group, Mr. Hanratty cannot vote."

Chairman Hanratty ruled that each candidate would be voted on individually. All eleven candidates were terminated by a majority vote with Mrs. Cooney voting in the negative.

Chairman Hanratty stepped down when his brother's name was placed before the Committee; Pease also abstained from voting when his wife's name was placed before the Committee.

The Committee then proceeded to vote 5-0 in favor of Sylvia's recommendation for the third appointment of three teachers.

- Sylvia then placed a recommendation before the committee for the tenure appointments of two teachers.

Mrs. Cooney stated that she was opposed to the appointment of "Candidate 1" for tenure because that candidate was not eligible for tenure under past School Committee practices. She noted that the School Committee had voted, last year, to place the candidate on the third year step. "At that time I opposed the appointment to the third year step. The Superintendent had recommended tenure for the candidate before the teacher had completed three consecutive years of teaching and the Committee turned that down," said Mrs. Cooney.

Sylvia stated that Candidate 1, whom he then identified as Miss Dinsdale, had been a permanent substitute for a half year and during the second half year was given a full contract for the remainder of that year. In addition, it was noted that she also worked in Project Alert for one year and is currently a teacher at the Middle School.

Mrs. Cooney noted that the minutes for a School Committee Meeting held on April 3, 1985 show that Miss Dinsdale was terminated by the unanimous vote of a previous Committee. The minutes also indicate that "Candidate 2", who is also being recommended for tenure tonight, received her second appointment on April 3, 1985.

"Why wasn't she (Candidate #2) given early tenure," asked Mrs. Cooney.

Sylvia responded that, as Superintendent, he has the authority to recommend any teacher for tenure.

Pease noted that in Miss Dinsdale's folder there seemed to be evidence of only one signed contract for a year.

Mrs. Cooney stated, "Dr. Sylvia, you are showing favoritism to this one candidate."

Sylvia replied that he had never shown favoritism to any staff member and that this could be verified by Mr. Johnson and Mr. Carmody.

Mrs. Cooney then asked, "Have you ever recommended any teacher before for early tenure?"

Sylvia answered, "No."

Mrs. Cooney shrugged her shoulders and said, "There you are."

Wilczynski questioned the possibility that there may be other minutes somewhere that might show previous appointments.

Mrs. Cooney stated that these were the official minutes of the previous School Committee and they were legal and valid.

Stating that he supported Sylvia's recommendation, Wilczynski then made a motion for approval.

Tuttle then suggested that consideration be given to studying the matter further and suggested that Sylvia's recommendation be reconsidered prior to the Public Budget Hearing on April 13. The committee agreed.

The Committee then voted 5-0 to unanimously approve the tenure year appointment for Candidate 2, Karen Canali, as recommended by Sylvia.

- Under "Resignations", the Committee approved the resignations of Sue Ruby and Patricia Howard both of whom are taking positions in other school systems.

- The Committee unanimously approved the appointment of Darlene Cripe as a permanent substitute for Grade 2 and the appointment of Patti Hanson for a special needs teacher-aide position.

Under "Informational Items", two members of the Guidance Department were present:

ASSUMPTION SCHOOL NEWS
By Grace Laflash

Lawyer, paleontologist, missionary, wife, husband, the year 2002, footprints, posters - take all of these ingredients, plus sundry others, blend with imagination and effort, and the result is Vocation Awareness Week. Classes pursued the aspects of the future with their respective teachers. The projects were displayed in the corridors.

Sister Elizabeth Morin planned a display of photos of the school personnel and prepared the Eucharistic celebration. The sixth graders who participated were Christine Murphy, Thaddeus Endriga, Kristin LaPorte, and Carl Rushton.

Jesus was portrayed by sixth grader, David Gagne, and the first graders representing the fisher people were as follows: Patrick Gibson, M. McLeod, Jennifer Fallovollita, Eric Gurski, Gina DeDecuo, Alyssa Webb, and Ryan O'Coin.

Other children involved were Joseph Szynal, grade 4; Kristen Kaczynski, grade 2; Brian McIntyre, grade 3; and Robert Rucci, grade 5.

The finale included an invitation to visit the adjoining building, the home of the religious teachers. The home-baked cookies served by Sister Lucille Cormier were SOOoooooo delicious.

There were four categories in which to enter, and our Millbury Club was pleased when Elizabeth "Betty" Kotzen won third in the photography contest. Her entry was a picture of her son's dog, Sir Lancelot, nicknamed "Lance". Betty competed against members of 241 clubs comprised of 15 districts.

Raymond Gemme, head counselor; and Thomas Murray, Work Study Coordinator. They appeared before the Committee to explain the scope of work performed during the week following the closing of school and the week prior to the opening of school.

Gemme briefly described the work load during those two weeks indicating that the tasks performed were important in preparing for a smooth opening of school.

Mrs. Cooney noted that approximately $5,000 might be saved in the Budget if the number of counselors working those two weeks was reduced.

Sylvia stated that the counselors were paid 1/180th of their yearly salary for those two weeks.

- Sylvia informed the Committee that he had received a request from Mrs. Sauer, the head of the school nurses, for an increase in the substitute nurse's pay. Mrs. Sauer noted that it was difficult to get substitute nurses at the current rate of $35 per day. A survey of several surrounding communities indicated a pay scale ranging from $8.15 per hour to $45 per day.

The Committee approved a rate increase from $35 to $45 per day.

- Mr. Garabedian, physical education director, informed the Committee that the change in policy adopted by the School Committee dealing with phys. ed. make-ups, and the recording of a failure grade in lieu of incompletes for work missed, has had a positive impact on the students. His letter noted that there were few incompletes recorded the second term.

Under "Addenda Items":

1. Alan Tuttle suggested that a sheet be added to the format of the Superintendent's evaluation concerning objectives and goals for next year's evaluation.

2. Mrs. Cooney brought up a point of concern with a previous request that she had made of the Superintendent for a study of the feasibility of placing Grade 7 with Grade 8 at the High School.

Sylvia noted that he considered it the type of request the whole Committee should approve as a body.

The rest of the Committee agreed with Mrs. Cooney that the request was appropriate.

3. The Committee voted unanimously for a new history text for the upper level students in Grade 8.

- Pease then stated that he was concerned about information given to the Committee concerning a drop-out with the student's name again written out.

Sylvia stated that he had notified the High School Administration of the Committee's request to delete names. He noted that the Administration assumed that since the Committee already knew the student's name it didn't matter.

The meeting adjourned at 10:00 p.m.

COLLEGE COUNCIL

GRAFTON. A new Blackstone Valley Quinsigamond Community College Council is shortly to be formed, according to Clifford S. Peterson, President of Quinsigamond Community College, and Charles N. Bolack of Grafton, who will be temporary Chairman of the new council.

Membership is to be composed of two individuals from each of the eleven towns, with one member to be appointed by the Board of Selectmen, and one from the school committee.

Towns involved are Blackstone, Millville, Northbridge, Douglas, Grafton, Hopedale, Mendon, Millbury, Sutton, Upton, and Uxbridge.

Quinsigamond Community College has already been conducting both day and night courses at their Blackstone Valley Campus for two years, in the second floor of the Grafton Municipal Center. The building, which was a former high school, is on Route 122 near Lake Ripple.

The first meeting has been scheduled for Monday, April 13, at 7:30 p.m. at the Grafton site.

One of the goals of the council will be to inform all in the valley towns, including businesses, organizations, etc., of the educational opportunities offered at the Blackstone Valley Campus in Grafton, as well as the main college in Worcester.

Scholarship plans are also to be explored as one of the goals.

Breakfast meetings are also scheduled to be held in each of the towns. Local people will be invited and the council will be in touch with the community, civic, educational, and business people of the Blackstone Valley.
